

Mutoh America's Vehicle Wrap Seminar Was a Smash Hit!!

Phoenix, AZ (March 2009) –

Mutoh's Vehicle Wrap Seminar March 19-20 had a successful turnout! Attendees walked away with a plethora of insightful hands on training and experience.

The class was designed to provide the guests with a competitive advantage in the car wrapping business. Justin Pate's graphic installation expertise was the cornerstone that taught speedy installation tricks and ways to avoid mistakes. Todd LaBrie, Owner of Carwraps, presented all aspects to effectively produce wraps and earn a large profit.

"Throughout the seminar I learned efficient design techniques and developed an extensive understanding of wrap mechanics," shared Bill Pirkett, Owner of Doppelganger. Patrick Buckley, a proud owner of a Mutoh 64" printer and Owner of Direct Effect Graphics adds, "Car wrapping in-house will impact my business by increasing sales."

The welcoming atmosphere encouraged participation. Joshua Marquardt of Art City Signs states, "The comforting learning environment allowed me to gain confidence without feeling intimidated when asking questions!"

Chris Milford, Manager of "The Reproduction Company", discovered the ValueJet 1614-64" Printer with Mutoh's Eco-Ultra Inks to launch into the car wrapping business.

Mutoh would like to thank the following sponsors for their contributions: 3M, Carwraps, Conquerer Tools, Metabo, and Neschen Americas – SEAL brand products.

"We had an overwhelming response to Mutoh's Vehicle Wrap Seminar and plan on scheduling future seminars across the United States," shares Randy Rickert, GM of Mutoh America.
